Using the dryer could damage clothes faster in the long run. However, they can go without a problem, since the fabric is already shrunk and has already been heated to 400 degrees.

We ship anywhere in Canada and the United States.

We stand behind the quality of our product. If you see a defect, we will send your order back to production at our expense.

Note that we produce on demand. It is therefore not possible to change the selected size. Please consult the size chart carefully.
